LEG. D'AMARO COLLECTING SCHOOL SUPPLIES FOR NEEDY AND HOMELESS CHILDREN

Donations Needed For 10th Annual “Back Pack Pirates” Drive

(HUNTINGTON STATION, NY... June 15, 2015) -- A fun summer day filled with adventure, mystery and treasure and yes even some learning! That is what a group of local volunteers have in store for hundreds of needy children ages 6 to 17 in Suffolk County later this summer, thanks to The Long Island Coalition for the Homeless who have again partnered with Holiday Magic, Every Child's Dream and the Suffolk County Legislature to help needy children finish the summer with a blast.

According to Legislator Lou D'Amaro (D-Huntington Station), the children will spend a fun-filled day at Dorothy P Flint 4-H Camp in Riverhead in the 10th Annual Back Pack Pirates Summer Fest in late August. At the end of the day, each child will receive a brand new backpack filled with school supplies. Hundreds of back packs have been ordered and now donations of school supplies are NEEDED to finish filling them.

Invitations to the Back Pack Pirates event will be distributed to needy children at homeless shelters, local parish outreaches, and to families at Department of Labor sites across Suffolk County. Children will enjoy a day filled with fun camp activities including treasure hunts, swimming, nature games, a barbeque lunch, entertainment and much, much more.

“These needy children don’t often get a chance to experience this type of adventure,” said Legislator D'Amaro. “It will be a fun and educational event and every participant gets to walk away with a cool back pack filled with supplies they will need for school. I am once again asking our local community to come out and generously support this great program.”
